

Cancellation waiver

Buying a property is not always a straightforward process and completion dates can change at very short notice.

Once you have booked, Pickfords will allocate resources to manage your move. If you cancel at short notice, you will be subject to cancellation fees on a sliding scale depending on the notice you have given. These are shown on our Terms & Conditions. If you cancel on the first day of the move, you will be charged 100% of your removal fees.

If you choose to take out Pickfords' Cancellation Waiver, Pickfords will waive the cancellation fee, giving you complete peace of mind and protecting you from unexpected costs.

Cancellation Waiver costs are shown on your Quotation. To order the Waiver, complete the additional options section on the Acceptance form.
